I am pleased to announce that we are seeking entry-level attorneys for our 2017-2018 Fellowship Program.

The Fellowship Program was established to provide opportunities for new attorneys to gain practical experience in the public sector while enjoying the personal satisfaction of serving the residents of Colorado and our many state agency clients. Our work at the Colorado Attorney General's Office encompasses criminal prosecution, consumer protection, civil rights, torts, contracts, eminent domain, administrative law, tax, environmental law, violence prevention programs, public health, school safety, energy and much more.

The Colorado Attorney General's Office is located in downtown Denver at the Ralph L. Carr Colorado Judicial Center. This facility is a distinguished, high-tech complex which also houses the Colorado Supreme Court, Court of Appeals, and other law-related offices.

I invite you to apply for a Fellowship position to begin October 2017 and join our talented and dedicated staff.

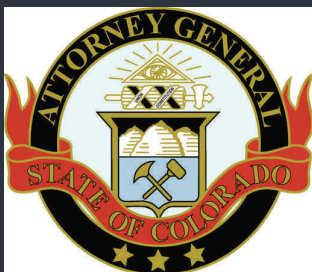

Sincerely,

Cynthia H. Coffman, Colorado Attorney General

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Selected Fellows are assigned to two sections of the Colorado Attorney General's Office and receive exposure to a broad range of subject matters. The sections for assignment are as follows: Business & Licensing, Civil Litigation & Employment Law, Criminal Appeals, Criminal Justice, Consumer Protection, Natural Resources & Environment, Office of the Attorney General, Revenue & Utilities, and State Services.

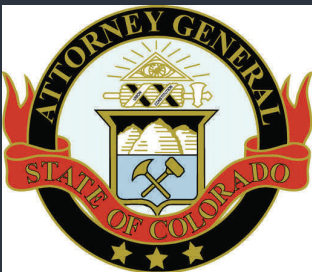

Fellows substantially develop their legal skills by engaging in substantive work under the mentorship of practicing attorneys. Fellows' experiences are different and tailored to each Fellow's particular interests and skills, allowing them to develop proficiency in particular practice areas. Fellows may assist attorneys in providing client advice and participating in client meetings, drafting agreements and other legal documents, preparing pleadings, and participating in depositions, hearings, or trials. Over the course of the year, Fellows are expected to assume considerable individual responsibility for their work and to make the most of the opportunity.

COMMENT FROM A FORMER AG FELLOW

“The Fellowship program served as the perfect link between law school and the “real world.” I thrived on the opportunity to take on full responsibility for my own cases with dedicated mentors who were willing to back me up at every stage. I came into the fellowship with a good knowledge base and a desire to serve the public interest. I finished with the practical experience and professional connections that make me competitive in a difficult legal market .”

Fellow, 2013-2014

ELIGIBLE CANDIDATES

The Colorado Attorney General’s Office seeks applications for its Fellowship Program from:

- Law students in their final year at an accredited law school scheduled to graduate in the Spring of 2017; or
- Current, full-time judicial law clerks who received their J.D. prior to 2017 and have not been hired to practice law in another setting.

The Fellowship Program begins in October 2017. All individuals invited to participate must commit to a one-year term and be admitted to the Colorado bar no later than October 2017.

The annual salary is $50,000.
